THE BEST OF SPORT
Excellent Polo on New Year's Day.

BLUES VANQUISH GALLANT REDS

Twelve Hundred People Witness Game for Benefit of the Myrtle Club.

The polo game for the benefit of the Myrtle Club proved the most exciting and interesting of any polo match played in the Hawaiian Islands. The weather was all that could be desired. The field might have been better, but owing to the recent rains was somewhat soft. The teams lined up as follows:

Blues—Lieutenant Hancock, 1; Geo. Angus, 2; W. Dickey, 3; C. S. Dole (captain), 4.
Reds—Albert Judd, 1; Antone Perry, 2; W. F. Dillingham (captain), 3; Robert Atkinson, 4.

First Period—The ball was put in play at 3:10 p. m. From the beginning the play was fast and furious. One foul only occurred during the whole match, and it occurred in this period, by Dole riding directly across Dillingham's "right of way." Referee S. E. Damon immediately blew his whistle and gave Captain Dillingham the option of taking one-half a goal or a free hit. Captain Dillingham took the free hit, and brought the ball down the field most brilliantly, but failed to score. The ball remained in the scrimmage for some time. Finally, Dickey saw an opening and made the best of it, making a splendid run down the field and scoring a goal for the Blues. The ball was quickly put in play and as rapidly carried down the field towards the Myrtles' goal, and was knocked over the line by one of the Reds, thus scoring one-quarter of a goal for the Blues. Time was called almost immediately after the ball was put in play. Score: Blues 14; Reds 0.

Second Period—The Myrtles, nothing discouraged, pranced on the field, all splendidly mounted, and commenced to play the "game of their lives." Dillingham's work in this period was magnificent; in fact, he was the life of the whole Red team. The Blues worked like Trojans, but in spite of their efforts, Dillingham scored a goal. The Blues got in some very good team work and scored a goal. Dickey knocking the ball between the posts. Shortly after the ball had been put in play, Atkinson's pony slipped and fell, rolling completely over, and in doing so injured the rider's knee. However, Atkinson quickly pulled himself together and continued the game. When time was called the ball was within a few feet of the Myrtles' goal. Score: Blues 24; Reds 1.

Third Period—The game started off with a dash seldom, if ever, seen in Hawaiian polo. The Blues scored two goals in this period; one made by Hancock, was especially brilliant, as he broke from the scrimmage, and notwithstanding the fact that his horse was decidedly erratic, took the ball over the line, and scored. The other goal was scored by Dillingham, who, after a short distance of the Healanis' goal posts, and it was here that Dillingham got in a sample of his good headwork by fishing the ball from under the horses' feet and knocking it through the goal posts of the Blues.

The Blues apparently recognized that it was up to them to do some hard work, and they certainly did do some marvelous hitting. Dole taking his team in hand and spurting them on in regular Healanis style. It was not many minutes before Dole had scored another goal for the Blues, due to the clever handling of his team. Only a very few minutes remained, and both teams worked hard to score, but during a scrimmage near the Blue goal, Hancock's horse knocked the ball over the line, thus scoring a safety, or one-quarter goal for the Reds. Time was called with the score, Blue 44; Reds 4.

Fourth Period—As can be readily imagined, the score being even, great enthusiasm prevailed among the audience. In keeping with the spirit of the audience, both teams hung on to the ball with jealous care. No one man was allowed to get very far with it. Every time Dole would make a rush, Judd was beside him, riding him off as never any player in these Islands has been ridden off. Then, again, Judd, the bulwark of the Red team, with his careful method of handling the ball would have a goal in sight when Dole would bound in between stick and ball like a whirlwind, slow up, turn around, as it were, on a 5-cent piece, and at the same time skillfully captain the Blue team. Judge Perry finally "handed" on the ball and sent it spinning down the field to within a few feet of the Blue line; Dole, following closely, in attempting to knock the ball back, accidentally drove it over the line, thus scoring a quarter of a goal for the Reds. Shortly after the knock-off Dickey again scored a quarter for the Reds by knocking the ball over the Blue line. Now the interest was intense, the score being 44 to 44 in favor of the Reds. It was here that Dole took hold of his team with an iron hand. Time and again he took the ball down the field to within a short distance of the Red goal. Dillingham knocked the ball about one hundred feet; Angus stopped it on the fly, and Dole took it through the Red goal, after a beautiful shot of at least seventy-five feet, thus ending the finest game of polo ever played in Hawaii. Final score: Blues 54; Reds 44. A difference of only half a goal.
